1. I will provide proper and sufficient food, water and shelter for the animal at all times and agree to have him/her examined regularly by a veterinarian at my expense.
2. I understand that the animal I am adopting has already been spayed or neutered. I will be responsible for any vaccinations that the animal may need. I understand that any and all expenses for such exam and/or additional medical care are my responsibility. Every effort is made to place only healthy animals; however, CHS cannot guarantee the health of any animal adopted from us.
3. I will respect and comply with all local and state ordinances, and laws applicable to animals by city, county, state or federal government.
4. I will return the animal to CHS if I am unable or choose not to keep it.
5. I understand that animals can be unpredictable and that CHS cannot anticipate or insure against unexpected conduct of any adopted animal. I acknowledge that CHS has not made, through its agents, volunteers, or employees any warranties regarding the condition, temperament or conduct of this animal. I hereby accept this animal as-is and assume all risks, responsibilities and obligations associated with ownership of this animal.
